

I am writing to encourage the FCC not to overturn New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law. This law was enacted to protect New Jersey citizens from unsolicited phone calls. Consumer rights are too often jeopardized for the well being of big business. It's time for our government to respond to the public instead of the corporate bottom line.